Alberta Chapter

OWIT Alberta Chapter

The Organization of Women in International Trade (OWIT) is an international organization of locally-based women's organizations providing support, inspiration, information and networking opportunities to women and men who are active members of the international trade community. Members of the Alberta Chapter are part of a worldwide network of more than 3,000 professionals whose involvement in OWIT enhances their knowledge of current global trade issues.

Our Members

Our members represent a diverse range of occupations, including: Banking and Finance, Communications, Customs and Trade, Law, Education, Government and Diplomacy, Import and Export Trade, Insurance, Technology, Trade Related, Non-Profits, Transportation and other international services

Our Meetings

OWIT's Alberta Chapter hosts programs on trade-related topics. These meetings offer members a forum for discussion with experts in a variety of fields. We also host special events during the year, including a year end social, and our annual general meeting in June, where members can interact and enjoy an exciting and thought provoking experience in a relaxed atmosphere.

Member and friends are also invited to join business leaders from around the world at the OWIT's annual International Conference.

Membership Benefits

Members of OWIT's Alberta Chapter enjoy many benefits, including:

- Regular programs on current issues of interest to the international trade community
- Business related meetings and social events
- Interaction with other professional associations
- Business card exchanges
- Member access to the international OWIT website (www.owit.org)
- Membership rates on events and conference registrations

Upcoming Events

Feel free to let us know what you are interested in learning more about and we will do our best to host an event to help you further your knowledge and business.
